

Granting HF privileges by requiring Element 1 is a reasonable thing to do. The purpose of the Technician License is to increase the development of frequencies above 50 MHz. HF privileges should remain an earned reward. CW is able to be an effective mode of communication in the most adverse set of conditions.